Dear Parishioners

I want to thank Fr. Normand Courtemanche, who has assisted in our parish since mid-January. He has helped us on weekends, Holy Week, and in covering my days off. Fr. Sisco returns from Rome next weekend, so this is the last Sunday Fr. Courtemanche is with us. We wish him God's blessing in all his priestly endeavors.

I am happy to announce that the Bishop has assigned a seminarian to our parish for the summer. His name is Piotrek Buczek and is studying for the priesthood in the Diocese of Providence. Piotrek is originally from Poland. He will arrive in the parish in early June. I know you will make him feel at home as he becomes acquainted with the ministry of parish life.

Fr. Zinno
