THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION is this Friday, February 2nd. Forty days after Christmas, Jesus is presented in the temple and is proclaimed as the light for all to see. Traditionally candles are blest on that day, which we will do at our morning masses. These candles will be available after mass and a kind donation of $3.00 would be greatly appreciated.

THE FEAST OF ST. BLAISE, a bishop and martyr in the early Church, is this Saturday, Feb.
3rd. St. Blaise is most noted for his miraculous cure of a boy who was choking. It is tradition on this feast to have the Blessing of Throats. This will take place after the morning mass on Saturday and after the 5PM Mass on Saturday evening.
